

SEPTEMBER 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

11. LAYLA MOODY is an American based abstract artist, interior designer, and owner of ArtisticMedia in Texas. She uses vibrant tones, metallics, iridescent paints, with resin finishes, across many styles and mediums. She describes her work as colourful, vibrant, and mood evoking. She is available for commissioned pieces as well. You can find out more at www.laylamoodyardesign.com and follow @laylamoodyardesign on Instagram.

12. MAJO PORTILLA is a Netherlands-based worldwide artist with a Latin background who creates abstract, contemporary and figurative meaningful statements of art. Her colourful, bold paintings transmit the vibrancy of her artistic career. See her stunning collection at majoportilla.art and follow @majoportillaart on Instagram.

13. COLLEEN SHAW is a painter and maker of ceramic and textile sculptural pieces. Living in the Lincolnshire countryside she finds inspiration in nature and animals. The paintings evolve through layering colours and using sgraffito mark making techniques. Her colourful and dynamic work can be viewed at www.colleenshaw.co.uk and by following @colleenshaw on Instagram.

14. STEVEN MILLER is an abstract artist based in New York, whose work surrounds the interplay of colour, form, and concepts that appear simple, but are more complex in reality. He has displayed his vibrant paintings worldwide. To see his stunning collection, visit www.stevenwmiller.com and follow @smillernyc on Instagram.

15. KERRY ROGERS is an Aberdeen based artist, she works with canvas, oils and watercolours to create her wonderful pieces that are born from her interest with skin. Discover more of Kerry's works at www.saatchiart.com/kerry11 or email kerry_rogers111@hotmail.co.uk

16. ANNIE MONCREIFF is an Australian artist. Her expressive, evocative land and seascapes feature gestural and textured mark making. Drawn primarily from the imagination, her semi-abstract, mixed-media pieces are inspired by childhood memories of far-flung places. Pictured is 'Hinterland Hike'. Commissions welcomed. Follow @anniemoncrieffcreative on Instagram.

17. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Spirit of Xaymaca'. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

18. Contemporary New York-based painter MELISSA SCHAIKER creates figurative/surrealist works from her studio in Tribeca. Her work has been exhibited in gallery and museum shows across the globe. Seen here is her recent oil painting, titled 'Emancipation'. Learn more about her work at www.mschainerfineart.com and follow @mschainerfineart on Instagram.

19. In this series titled "Slices of Experience" artist LEI CHANG creates collages and intersperses realistic and historical images on soft silk. The silk paintings' strong colour contrast highlights the relations between self individual consciousness and historical society as well as the juxtaposition between modern thinking and traditional culture. For more information about Lei and his work, contact Lei Chang of AT Art and Interiors at www.allisonthompsonstudio.com and follow @atcontemporary on Instagram.

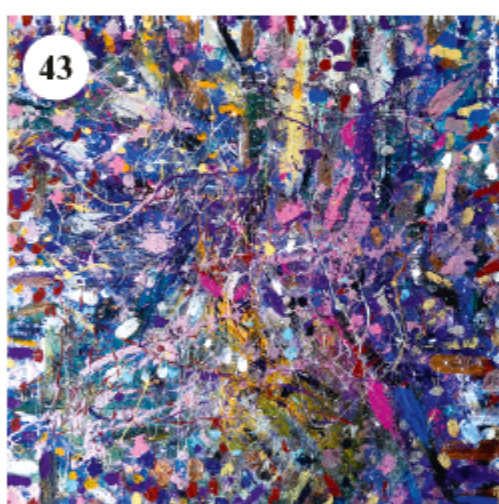

20. GIUSEPPE PASTORE is an Italian artist based in southern Italy. His artistic production is varied and heterogeneous. His abstract works have both impulsive and reflective traits, with bright tones and lively compositions. You can find out about his art on the site pastoregiuseppe.wixsite.com/10giuseppe or follow @Giuseppe.pastore_art on Instagram.

21. Australian artist, MEGAN STANLEY from Brisbane, Queensland, has a passion for expressing the local iconic natural landscape, and garden scenes through a vibrant energetic brushstroke and colour technique, her style inspired by the fauvism art movement. See more at beyondthebrushstroke.com, or follow @beyondthebrushstroke.com on Instagram.

JULY 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

34. KONSTANTIN SOTNIKOV has spent most of his life living and working in Germany. At times bright and colourful and others dark and pensive, his art explores an illusory world rendered through a rigorous dedication to composition and technique. Pictured:

Untitled, 2021, 240 x 200 cm. Explore and enquire at www.marievonpapen.com

35. RORY PRINSLOO's art is created as a result of wanting to express his thoughts about life and existence. This theme is present in all the work he creates with his projects ranging from sculpture, drawing, painting and prints. Discover more at www.roryprinsloo.co.za and follow @roryprinsloo on Instagram.

36. LUNA VOSS' artwork is a constant search for intimate subconscious truth, this is sometimes found through searching within herself or by observing others. In Luna's series about Gia Carangi, she sets out to explore how the harsh demand for superficial beauty can leave those seemingly gaining from this vulnerable. Discover more at www.lunavossstudios.com/ and follow @lunavossstudios on Instagram.

37. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Grace' 24" x 30" acrylic painting. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

38. TOM VAN HERREWEGE is a British artist who explores exotic landscapes in search of beautiful wild animals in his charcoal drawings. His work often also alludes to humanity's relationship with the natural world through subtle overlaid details. Follow @tvanherrewege on Instagram or visit www.tomvh.com to find out more.

39. PIA KINTRUP is an award winning German artist who graduated from the Folkwang University of Arts. Her research investigates new media and materials, ranging from photography to sculpture. Transformational processes, value, emptiness and abundance, and photographic steps of transition are essential for her artwork. She has held countless exhibitions around Europe, and also a few in Asia, Canada, and the USA. Pictured is 'the shore'. She is represented by Galerie Ricarda Fox, based in Germany. Visit www.piakintrup.com and follow @piakintrup on Instagram.

40. Australian Artist, MEGAN STANLEY from Brisbane, Queensland, has a passion for expressing the local iconic natural landscape, and garden scenes through a vibrant energetic brushstroke and colour technique, her style inspired by the fauvism art movement. See more at beyondthebrushstroke.com or follow @beyondthebrushstroke.com on Instagram.

41. GIUSEPPE PASTORE is an Italian artist based in southern Italy. His artistic production is varied and heterogeneous. His abstract works have both impulsive and reflective traits, with bright tones and lively compositions. You can find about his art on the site pastoregiuseppe.wixsite.com/10giuseppe or follow @Giuseppe.pastore_art on Instagram.

42. CHASE MCCLOUGH is an up-and-coming artist based in the US. Her work with alcohol inks juxtaposes bold colours with soft lines and shading to create organic forms that strike you as both familiar and mysterious. Visit her website, www.chasemccloughfluidart.com to purchase original artwork and prints and follow @chasingartdreams50 on Instagram to see more.

43. GERALDINA KHATCHIKIAN is an Italian abstract painter and jewellery designer living and working in Milan, Italy. Her abstract process revolves around the concept of awareness and healing. All her canvases are the result of an emotional journey that describes the preciousness of the inner world through explosion of colours mixed together with the world of metals. This painting is titled "Recreate Myself", 90cm x 90cm. See more online at www.geraldinakhatchikian.com and follow @g.khatchikian.art on Instagram.

1. LAYLA MOODY is an American based, abstract artist, interior designer, and owner of ArtisticMedia in Texas. She uses vibrant tones, metallics, iridescent paints, with resin finishes, across many styles and mediums. She describes her work as colourful, vibrant, and mood evoking. You can find out more at www.laylamoodyardesign.com @laylamoodyardesign on Instagram.

2. E.B. WATTS is an American artist living in Cheshire, England. She paints with acrylics on canvas. She has made a feature of continuing the composition around the sides. Her paintings lend a bold statement to any wall. Her inspiration comes from both England and America and around the world. Colour, imagination and technique are three dynamic qualities she achieves with each canvas. Visit ebwatts.com to find out more.

3. Tanya of STEWART ART STUDIO is a Canadian oil painter and photographer, with a love for all things nature and cultural exploration. This alchemy is inspired by her affliction with biophilia and translated onto canvas or through her lens in her West Coast art studio, located in Squamish, British Columbia. Visit www.stewartartstudio.com and follow @stewartartstudio on Instagram.

4. DAMIAN WILLETT is a British artist whose paintings explore states of transition and the passage of time. His inspiration comes from a fascination with process, texture and form. Layers of colour are built up over deconstructed forms which culminate in rich, densely textured paintings. Visit damianwillett.com and follow @damianwillett on Instagram.

5. LUNA VOSS' artwork is a constant search for intimate subconscious truth, this is sometimes found through searching within herself or by observing others. In Luna's series about Gia Carangi, she sets out to explore how the harsh demand for superficial beauty can leave those seemingly gaining from this vulnerable. Discover more at www.lunavosstudios.com/ and follow @lunavosstudios on Instagram.

6. KRISTEN CAMPO FINE ART & DESIGN specialises in contemporary artwork that is unique, modern and stands the test of time. "It is imperative to assist a client in finding art that speaks to them on a deeper level, where the heart does the talking, if we can achieve that I know that we have found a work of Art that will provide a lifelong love affair!" The gallery represents artists from all over the world. Featuring Ukrainian-Canadian artist, Maya Eventov. Colourful palette knife acrylics refresh and enliven any interior to create a sophisticated visual impact. Visit www.kcfagallery.com and follow @kc.fineart on Instagram or call +1 585 880 1945.

7. MALA SAYS is the conceptual playground of Australian artist, Ash. She uses a layered, painterly approach in the processing of her photographs to explore the intersection between natural phenomena and mysticism. Visit www.malasays.com and @_mala_says_ on Instagram for more.

8. GIUSEPPE PASTORE is an Italian artist based in southern Italy. His artistic production is varied and heterogeneous. His abstract works have both impulsive and reflective traits, with bright tones and lively compositions. You can find about his art on the website pastoregiuseppe.wixsite.com/10giuseppe or follow @Giuseppe.pastore_art on Instagram.

9. SARAH TUDOR is an American artist based in the Brandywine Valley of Pennsylvania. She is best known for softly layered floral and landscape oil paintings inspired by poetic and literary themes. Visit sarahtudorart.com and follow @sarahtudorart on Instagram.

10. RAY LEOEUF's work, 'Under the Influence', is an acrylic painted 5 foot tall stuffed mouse, it offers a sinister simulacrum of cultural icons and a dark portrait of the hollowness of consumer-driven contemporary society. For this and other fine art prints, visit www.rayleboeuf.com and follow @rayleboeuf on Instagram.

JULY 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

